Aging Population & Slow Economic Growth Contributing to the Coming Social Security Crisis According to the U.S. Treasury, about 50 million Americans receive retirement benefits annually. With a steady stream of baby boomers retiring, beneficiaries are increasing by over a million each year. The cost of Social Security will rise faster than tax income because the population over age 65 will grow faster than the working-age population. Both the baby boom generation and increasing life expectancy after age 65 contribute to an aging population. Our Aging Population--The Social Security Crisis by Carol C Collins starting at.
